Good Source Solutions Announces New Vice President of Strategic Sourcing and Product Development

San Diego, Calif. – March 30, 2010 – Good Source Solutions, Inc. announced their new Vice President of Strategic Sourcing and Product Development, Mr. Paul Ladouceur.

Mr. Ladouceur will now be responsible for sourcing new vendors and spearheading the creation of new Good Source products. Mr. Ladouceur joins Good Source with over thirty years experience with Hyatt hotels, Compass Group, Five Star Food Service and Aramark Corporation. He sees his prior positions as a chef and in procurement as assets to his new role in growing business for Good Source.

“During these modern economic times it is difficult to have both the respect of suppliers and team members. Good Source Solutions is an organization that operates with both and has an ethical mission statement in which it operates,” states Mr. Ladouceur.

President and Chief Executive Officer of Good Source Solutions, Craig Shugert, sees Mr. Ladouceur’s vast knowledge and passion for the food industry helping him succeed in his new position.

“Paul’s breadth and depth in knowledge of the food industry, and passion for it, will add huge value to our company. It is nice to meet someone with 30 years in the food industry who is excited to be a part of a closeout company whose focus has been saving its customers money on quality food,” says Mr. Shugert.

Mr. Ladouceur looks forward to expanding the Company’s partnerships and generating new products for Good Source.

“I plan on meeting with current partners and developing new partners for Good Source Solutions. Together we will develop new products, gain exclusivity through these partnerships, and have long lasting positive deals in place allowing Good Source to be the industry leader in its category,” says Mr. Ladouceur.

Mr. Ladouceur will be opening a Midwest office in Chicago. This location provides greater accessibility to many Good Source supplier partners.
