Prestigious Silver Plate Honor Awarded to Good Source Colleague

Chicago, IL. – May 30, 2010 – Members of the food distribution company Good Source Solutions team traveled to Chicago last week to attend the 56th annual International Foodservice Manufacturers Association (IFMA) Gold & Silver Plate Celebration to honor Silver Plate recipient Major Robert James Beach.

The esteemed Gold & Silver Plate award is presented to individuals in the food service industry who provide lasting and outstanding contributions to the advancement of the Food Service Industry. Major Jim Beach was presented the Silver Plate award for his continuous contribution.

More than 500 foodservice executives attended the event to recognize these achievements. “Jim Beach is an inspiration to all of us within the food service industry,” explained Craig Shugert, CEO of Good Source Solutions. “His dedication and drive is evident in his work ethic and carries through to his volunteer efforts in his community.”

In addition to traveling to Chicago to attend the IFMA Celebration and demonstrate their support, Good Source also sponsored a table at the recognition banquet.
